NOTES OF DIAMOND IN MAJOR LEAGUES

The best reason yet advanced why the Browns will NOT finish last is: Five out of six experts say they WILL. History does not tell us of a baseball forecast that ever "came true."

Roger Bresnahan probably will not call until the middle of next week. He will stop off at Toledo on his way back from New York. When he reaches St. Louis next week he will be there for the rest of the 1912 season.

Empire Tom Connolly says Larry LaJole hits at bad balls. "If he waited for good ones he'd hit 1,000," writes Connolly. That's all right, Tom, but why tip the big Frenchman off?

Elmer Zacher, once a member of the Cardinals and also a member of the Giants, has turned writer. He opines with his pen that Wolverton is a better manager than McGraw. Quick, officer, the ambulance!

Sid Mercer perpetrates this one in the New York Globe: "Rube Marquard breezed up to the Waldorf in his four cylinder and took Charley Herzog out riding. Herzog bought a car last fall with some of his world's series money, and he and Rube indulged in a bewildering technical conversation before they started. 'I've run my car a thousand miles without a puncture,' boasted Herzog. 'That's nothing,' retorted Marquard. 'I went three blocks once without hitting a man.'"

Thirty-four old time ball players died during the year 1911 and most of all of them left their families in poor circumstances and some in absolute want. Just because the players were unable to save their money when it was coming easy.

Most of the present day ball players have adopted a new code of living from what the old timers did. It is not unusual now to find players that have saved the first dollar they made in the game and every dollar that has come to them since that time.

George Moriarty, the Tiger third baseman, who has achieved fame as a song writer, now says that there is more money in writing successful songs than there is in playing baseball. The only trouble is that the public doesn't always judge a song the same way the author does.

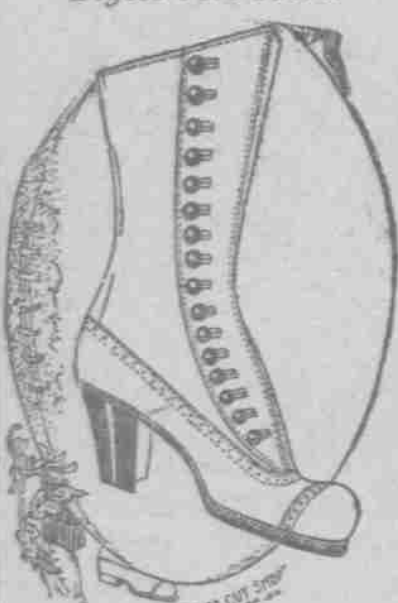

YOUNGSTERS ON SIDE LINES
DURING TOURNAMENT PLAY
The Centipedes, Panthers, Gray Eagles and other footed and winged teams in the Boy Scouts Basketball league, and the young hopefuls of the Grammar School Athletic league, are having to take a back seat while the southwestern federation basketball games hold the calcium spotlight at the "Y". The young America teams will "come back" next week.

DOUGLAS BOWLING MATCH IS CALLED OFF FOR A WEEK
As one of the star players on the Douglas "Y" team was incapacitated for action, the Douglas "Y" wouldn't bowl against the local "Y" in the telegraph match that was to have been played Thursday night. The teams will bowl next week. The Texas Oil company office force defeated the E. P. Mc I. Grenadiers by a margin of 123 pins in their bowling match Thursday night.

YALE AND PRINCETON DO NOT DO WELL AT BASKETBALL
Princeton, N. J., Feb. 23.—Princeton defeated Yale at basketball last night, 24 to 16. Princeton ended the season in fifth place with Yale last.

Just a few more of those snappy un-called-for suits and overcoats at Pearson's. Why not save $10 or $15 and get the best money can buy. If you need clothes and can't wait to have them made to order? A perfect fit guaranteed. R. V. Pearson, 110 Texas street.
